We need this information to run an enjoyable and safe programme to make sure we have adequate facilities and numbers of leaders. By giving us relevant information on health and special needs we can endeavour to make sure children and young people are safe and can participate as fully as possible in planned activities. We need signed parental consent in order for children/young people to attend. If we need to contact you during children/youth programme activities we will use the emergency contact details you give us. The New Horizon office processes the registration forms and will only share children/youth information with relevant team leaders. We only keep your information for as long as we consider it necessary and reasonable. This takes into account our legal obligations, insurance recommendations.
